Thanks to you both. Maybe we can try to get to the bottom of this over time. The clinic has been small for decades so that's not new, but wonder if the courts adapted over those decades. Judicial preference just refers to whether Bronx judges have a particular bid against ordering 730's

I have had no luck in contacting anyone in the courts in Bronx, so aside from what the clinic reports I have no information. And their hard drive with all of their data from the past ten years or so crashed and we have not been successful in retrieving information.
